

NOTICE TO TERMINATE ...

your home

... your introductory tenancy
What happens next?

Available in large print, Braille and on CD

You have broken your introductory tenancy agreement and have been sent a Notice to Terminate.

If it goes ahead
you will lose your council home.

If you want a review of this decision, fill in the Request for a Review form that comes with this leaflet. Send it back to the address on the form.

We must get your request within 14 days of the date written on the bottom of the Notice to Terminate.

The review

We will write to you at least five days before the review telling you where and when it will happen. You can come to the review and bring someone with you if you want.

A senior officer will review the case. The officer will not have been involved in the original decision to end your tenancy.

The review will look at any information you give us, and check that we have correctly followed the legal procedure for ending your tenancy.

We will send you the final decision within two weeks of the review.

Taking possession of your home

If the review agrees with the original decision, we will ask the court for permission to evict you.

The court will tell you the date by which you must leave your home. If you have not left by then, we will ask the court bailiffs to remove you from the property.

After the eviction

Your name may go onto our rehousing review list, which means that we may not offer you another council home in the future.

This may mean that you would become homeless. This doesn't make any difference to the decision to evict you from your home – that will still go ahead. If you do find yourself homeless or about to become homeless you can contact us on 03000 123 123 for further advice.

If you want independent advice, take this leaflet, and the Notice to Terminate to a citizens' advice bureau, law centre, housing aid centre or solicitor. Details are in the phone book.
